CLUB SERVICES AND FUNCTION AREAS:

i) Club Services:

Location, hours of occupancy, drink and food services will be in accordance with details notified by management.

ii) Private Functions:

- (a) Function and entertainment areas may be made available for private functions when not otherwise required for Club purposes. Hours of occupancy, drink and food services will be by negotiation. Extensions beyond normal trading hours or use on Sunday and public holidays will involve additional charges.
- (b) The restaurants and/or restaurant bars may also be made available for similar purposes when not otherwise required for Club purposes.
- (c) Members and guests attending private functions must comply with the Club By-Laws.

1. PUBLIC HOLIDAYS:

The Club trades 365 days a year. Hours of opening at each venue on Christmas Day will be advised to members prior to the day.

2. RESTRICTED AREAS:

On the authority of the Chief Executive Officer, certain areas of the Club may be restricted for use by certain members and their guests during specific periods. A notice defining the restricted area and the time of restricted entry shall be prominently displayed during those times.

3. GUESTS:

Guests may be admitted to the Club on the invitation of and in the company of a member and must provide valid ID, preferably a driver's license, which will be scanned through the Infosign system and sign in using the Clubs electronic form.

A member is directly responsible for the actions and behaviour of any guest whom he/she signed into the Club on a particular day and must account to the Board for any contravention of the Club's rules including General and Gaming Machine By-Laws by his/her guest.

4. TEMPORARY MEMBERS:

The Chief Executive Officer or their representative may grant temporary membership to a visitor for a period of up to 30 days on payment of the relevant membership fee.

A suitable card/notice indicating the period of membership will be issued for identifiable purposes.

5. RECIPROCAL MEMBERS:

Members of clubs which have been afforded reciprocal rights may be permitted the use of all Club facilities, provided:

- i) they comply with the Club's By-Laws
- ii) they produce evidence of current membership of a reciprocal Club
- iii) provide a valid ID, and confirm their address, and sign in Reciprocal members may be granted temporary membership on request.

6. MEMBERS' BEHAVIOUR:

Members are required to behave in a respectable manner at all times and are expected to comply with all reasonable requests made to them by the Chief Executive Officer, the Venue Managers or their representatives.

If the Chief Executive Officer, the Venue Manager or their representatives form the opinion that the alleged conduct of any Member is or is likely to be injurious to themselves, members or guests, is undesirable or not in the best interests or welfare of the Club, the Member will be given notice in writing of the matter alleged against him/her with a suspension of their membership until afforded an opportunity of being heard by Directors in his/her own defense.

7. RESPONSIBLE SERVICE OF ALCOHOL

Under the Liquor Act 2010, it is an offence for a liquor licensee or liquor permit-holder, or for one of their employees, to supply liquor to an intoxicated person. It is also an offence for another person, such as a member or guest, to supply liquor to an intoxicated person at licensed premises.

It is an offence under the Liquor Act 2010 for an intoxicated person to abuse, threaten, or intimidate staff in the Club if they have been refused service due to intoxication. An on-the-spot fines may apply. Section 104 of the Act says that a person is intoxicated if;

- (a) the person's speech, balance, coordination or behaviour is noticeably affected; and
- (b) it is reasonable in the circumstances to believe that the affected speech, balance, coordination or behaviour is the result of the consumption of liquor.

In the case of an intoxicated member, the Club and its representatives can request police assistance or follow Clause 6 – Member's Behaviour.

8. COMPLAINTS:

Should a member have any complaint concerning any aspect of Club management or administration, the matter should be drawn to the attention of the President, Chief Executive Officer, Venue Managers, and Gaming Service Managers as appropriate. Matters of a serious nature should be submitted in writing.

9. SMOKING:

All areas within the Club are designated nonsmoking and all members and guests are required to comply with this Government regulation in the interest of all patrons and the occupational health and safety of staff.
